

Use and outcomes of peripheral vasopressors in early sepsis-induced hypotension across Michigan hospitals: a retrospective cohort study

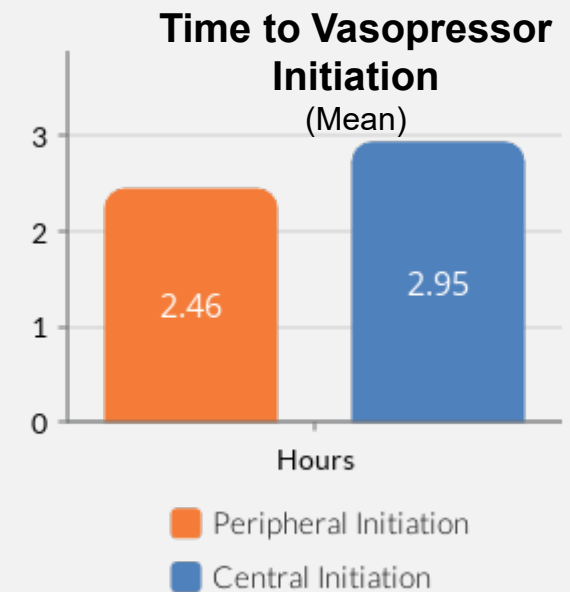

Results from adults hospitalized with Sepsis (11/2020-9/2022) at 29 hospitals across Michigan

Peripheral vasopressors had advantages:

Percentage of patients that avoided a Central line

Peripheral vasopressor initiation was common across Michigan hospitals and had practical benefits without harm.